“ Mr. D. was the best boss I ever had. He freely shared his knowledge and was a wonderful mentor. I learned so much about human resources. His knowledge was not confined to human resources and he gave me so many gardening hints. He loves his family and he always had a funny story to share. Mr. D. Was the best!

“ Larry was the brother to me I never had. He was always available to answer any personnel questions I had when I was in charge of the admitting office at Union Memorial . hospital. His knowledge was so valuable to me. In addition to his constant availability , he was a wonderful cousin. Joe and I spent 2 winters with him in Florida . In addition to being my dear cousin, he loved Joe who felt like he too, had another brother in his life. His conversations with us were captivating. Such interesting conversations. We laughed together, cried together and simply enjoyed one another . I will miss my dear cousin. Words cannot express how very much I loved him. Rest easy.. God's light is shining upon you. Love, Provie.
