

Louise Blades

June 23, 1924 - October 11, 2011

Louise E. Blades died on Tuesday, October 11, 2011, surrounded by her family. She was 87 years young.

Louise was born June 23, 1924, in Preston, MD, the daughter of the late Floyd and Emma Coleman. Mom B, as she was affectionately known by many, enjoyed gardening, bird-watching, fishing, cooking, putting together puzzles, spoiling 'her' dog Heidi, and spending time with loved ones.

Louise is survived by her husband of 70 years, Leon Blades; her daughter, Margaret B. Swann and her companion Jack Ball; her granddaughters, Linda Elben-Adams and her husband, Terry, Susan Campbell and her husband Tommy, Amy Clopper and her husband, Eric; seven great-grandchildren Michel Elben, Mitchell Elben, Alan Campbell, Leigh Campbell, Jessica Clopper, Mason Clopper and Kelly Walker; two great-great grandchildren Brianna and Lucas; two sisters, Evelyn Deel and Barbara Gannon; as well as many nieces and nephews. Along with her parents, she is preceded in death by three sisters, one brother and her son-in-law, Earle Swann, whom she loved as a son.

Service will be held at 11 a.m., Monday, October 17, at Fellows, Helfenbein & Newnam Funeral Home, P.A., Easton, where friends may call an hour prior to the service. Burial will be at Springhill Cemetery in Easton.

“ Dear Peggy, Linda & family,
I just want to express my deepest sympathy to you and the rest of your family on the death of your mother and grandmother. She was such a sweet lady. I always enjoyed talking to her and Mr. Blades in Wal-Mart. I have missed seeing her lately. I know she loved you all dearly. She just lit up when she talked about her family.
I don't think I'll be able to attend the services Monday, but I wanted you to know my thoughts and prayers are with you. Take Care,
Linda & family##imported-begin##Linda C. Pepper##imported-end##
