

Louise Marie Handley

July 1, 1920 - February 16, 2014

Louise Marie Handley of Grasonville, MD, died Sunday, February 16, 2014, at Whitewood Assisted Living in Grasonville. She was 93.

Born on July 1, 1920, in Baltimore, MD, she was the daughter of the late Clarence Truitt and Minne Wilkens. She grew up in Highlandtown and would graduate Eastern High School Class of 1937. She then began working for Lord Baltimore Dry Cleaners when she would meet and later, in 1942, marry Woodrow Wilson Handley. They would make their home in Gardenville where she was a homemaker for a few years and would eventually return to work with the Baltimore City Police Department for 26 years retiring in 1985 as a Senior Clerk Typists. Her husband would predecease her in 1995, and, soon after, she would move to the Eastern Shore in Grasonville, MD. She was very active with the Grasonville Senior Center and a member of the Galilee Lutheran Church in Chester, MD.

She is survived by a daughter, Janet A. McNeill and her husband Tom of Grasonville, MD; a son, Warren Woodrow Handley of Parkville, MD; a sister, Carolyn Reynolds of Oklahoma; three grandchildren, Bennett McNeill, Jr, Vincent McNeill and Theresa Nalls; eleven great-grandchildren; and two great-great-grandsons.

A memorial service will be held at the Fellows, Helfenbein and Newnam

Funeral Home, P. A. in Chester, MD, on Tuesday, Feb. 18, 2014, at 5:00 PM, where family and friends may visit from 3-5PM. The family suggests that, in lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to Hospice of Queen Anne's Inc., 255 Comet Drive, Centreville, MD 21617.

“ Janet, I remember Louise working in the yard with you. She had such "spunk" even though in her 80's and oh how she loved you!
You were fortunate to have her in your lives. My thoughts are with you all.
