

Louise L. Cook

August 14, 2000

Louise L. Cook of Centreville, MD, died on Monday, August 14, 2000, at the Corsica Hills Nursing Center of Centreville as a result of heart failure. She was 98.

Born March 2, 1902, near Starr, she was the daughter of the late Rev. Henry and Lillian Estelle “Dolly” Reed Covington. A lifelong resident of Queen Anne's County and surrounding area, she was a 1920 graduate of Centreville High School and later went on to Townsend Normal School where she graduated in 1922. She began a teaching career at Crumpton Elementary School. She married William Henry Cook, Sr., and they raised a family of three sons. When not teaching she worked the farm with her husband. She retired from the teaching profession in 1953. However, her love of teaching led her to substitute teaching from 1953 until the 1960's. Mr. Cook died in 1976.

She was a very active member in the Bethany United Methodist Church in Price and was very active in the Eastern Star where she was Past Worthy Matron. She was also a member of the Price Community Club.

She is survived by three sons, William N. Cook, Jr., of Queenstown, MD, Edwin D. Cook, and Howard T. Cook, both of Centreville, MD; six grandchildren; 11 great-grandchildren; and three step-great-grandsons.

She was preceded in death by her brothers and sisters, Mary Chambers, Esther Hollingsworth, Edward, Henry, Alfred and Calvin Covington.

Funeral services will be held on Thursday, August 17, 2000, at 1:00 PM at the Bethany United Methodist Church, Price, MD, where Rev. Charles Covington will officiate.

Friends may call at the Fellows, Helfenbein & Newnam Funeral Home, Centreville, on Wednesday, August 16, 2000, from 7 –9 PM.

Burial will be at the Chesterfield Cemetery, Centreville, MD.

Memorial donations may be made to the Bethany United Methodist Church, P.O. Box 6, Church Hill, MD 21623.
