

Luanne Meredith

May 4, 1943 - August 9, 2015

Luanne Cobb Meredith of Wye Mills, MD, died at her home on August 9, 2015. She was 72.

Born in Ninety Six, SC, on May 4, 1943, she was the daughter of the late Horace H. Cobb and Ella Norris Cobb. She grew up in Ninety Six and, after attending Ninety Six High School, she met Howard Meredith, Sr., whom she married. The couple settled down and made their home in Wye Mills in 1962.

Luanne was a homemaker while her children were young. After her children were grown, she worked in the home health care industry, first for Home Call, then providing private home care.

Luanne's greatest joy was home cooking for large gatherings of family and friends, especially sharing stories and jokes at the table. She also enjoyed doing yardwork, gardening, collecting antiques, collecting pigs and angels, and attending 4-H events.

She is survived by her daughters, Katherine Meredith Hayes of Aldie, VA, and Mary Elizabeth "Libby" Meredith of Wye Mills, MD; a son, James Howard Meredith, Jr., of Centreville, MD; a sister, Faye Holley of Ware Shoals, SC; and a brother, Butch Cobb of Ninety Six, SC. She was preceded in death by her husband, James Howard Meredith, Sr.; her brother, Heyward F. Cobb; and her sister, Myrna C. Maffett.

A visitation will be held on Wednesday, August 12 at the Fellows, Helfenbein & Newnam Funeral Home, P.A. in Centreville, MD, from 2-4 p.m. and 6-8 p.m.

Interment will be at 11 a.m. on Friday, August 14 at Siloam Cemetery in Ninety Six, SC.

Memorial contributions may be made to Compass Regional Hospice, 255 Comet Dr., Centreville, MD 21617.

“ So sorry to hear of Luannes passing. The few times we shared when I drove her to her hairdressers or to doctor appts. were fun times. She would tell me of things that left us in stitches. We would laugh at different stories of things that had happened over the years. The joy she had over the metal lawn ornaments BJ made her, had me looking for porch rockers made the old fashion way, had to be seasoned wood, I never did find them. My dear friend will be greatly missed. Heart felt sympathy to the family.

“ Sending my thoughts and prayers to family and friends of Luanne.
She always had a way of making her problems, aches and pains into the funniest stories. I could laugh for hours with her. She loved her flowers in the yard and always invited me to stop by to look at them each spring. I always felt right at home when I visited. She will be missed.

“ So very sorry for your loss! My late husband, Wally Taylor, thought the world of Luanne! When he worked up in that area, he would always stop in to "chew the fat " with her. Many a time he would hunt with her husband. She sure did love to cook for anyone and everyone who stopped in. Our loss is Heaven's gain!

“ My condolences to the Meredith family...I have many fond memories of Miss Luanne...you never left her house hungry or without a laugh.
The country ham and homemade biscuits were always a treat! She always made it her goal to make anyone feel at home that visited there, even if they were a stranger. -- Wally Taylor & family

“ Dear Libby, Howard and Kathy,

I am so sorry for your loss of Mom. I was blessed to know Luanne, and shared many stories and jokes with her at the Post Office. At Christmas the plates of cookies she shared with us was great and enjoyed by many. We know she is now at peace and without pain and one day we will join her in heaven to part no more. Our thoughts and prayers are with each of you and Libby you were a true blessing to Mom.
