

Lucinda "Cindy" Jean Tambourine

June 6, 1954 - March 8, 2015

Lucinda J. Tambourine (Cindy) of Stevensville, MD, died March 8, 2015 at her home. She was 60.

Cindy was born on June 6, 1954, in Washington, PA, the daughter of the late Shirley Margaret Harris Tambourine and Benjamin Richard Tambourine.

She graduated from Bethlehem Center High School in 1970 where she performed in the band and acted as Mistress of Ceremonies at her commencement. She received a certificate of Cosmetology from the Pittsburgh Beauty Academy in 1973. Cindy received her Bachelor's degree from the University of Pittsburgh in 1981, and her MBA from the University of Pittsburgh Katz School of Business in 1982. She began her professional business career with Mellon Bank in Pittsburgh in 1983 before transferring to NYC. She moved to Citibank in NYC where she earned her Certified Financial Planner Certification. She spent over 20 years there, working primarily in the Private Bank, Law Firm Group, where she reached the level of Managing Director and was recognized as an expert in law firm banking practices. During a brief period of contemplating retirement, she was Chief Financial Officer for Covington Burling Law Firm in Washington, DC, in 2001, before returning to Citibank and finishing her career in 2012.

In recent years she was mother to a rambunctious Australian Shepherd named Marcie. Cindy was incredibly happy with the community of people she came to call her friends there and was very proud of the ribbons she earned with Marcie in Obedience and Rally Advanced and Expert. Cindy was an avid reader of mystery and crime fiction. For a brief time, she conducted and wrote author interviews for Mystery News Newspaper.

Cindy loved Broadway and American popular standards music, reading mystery fiction, playing casino slots and traveling. She and her husband, David, fulfilled their goal of visiting all fifty states in 2010 by visiting Idaho.

Cindy was my boss, years ago, when I worked in the Accounting Department at Covington & Burling in DC. I remember her boisterous laugh, ever-present smile and gorgeous red hair. On a whim tonight, I looked her up to see how she was doing and am saddened to discover her passing. She had a zest for life that more people should encompass.

“ To the family of our dear Cindy- in the last few days we have talked among ourselves about Cindy...her laughter, her directness and honesty, her keen ability to cut to the heart of issues, and her endless desire to teach and share her knowledge. She left this place too soon. We are comforted that she retired from Citi to spend more time with her family and we wish all of you patience and peace in the future. She will be always remembered by all of us at Citi as a great colleague, mentor and friend.
