

Ludwig Hedderich

June 27, 2000

Ludwig Hedderich of Denton, formerly of Ridgely, died at the Caroline Nursing Home in Denton on Tuesday, June 27, 2000. He was 90.

Born on November 13, 1909 in Lutherville, he was the son of the late Phillip and Katharine Schmidt Hedderich. Early in life, his family moved to Longwoods and later to Cordova where he learned skills as a farmer. He returned to Baltimore in 1936 to work for the Crown, Cork, and Seal Company. In 1938, he married the former, Emma Catherine Nuce. In 1939, he began a long career with the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad as a fireman on steam locomotives. Over the next several years, he prepared for his advancement to the position of Engineer. He held the position of Engineer from 1945 until his retirement in 1974.

Mr. Hedderich was a member of the Druid Royal Arch Chapter #28 and the Masonic Order of the Pythagoras Lodge #123, both in Baltimore.

Mr. Hedderich is survived by a daughter, Carol L. Angel of Baltimore; a son and daughter-in-law, Dr. Ronald L. and Rhonda Hedderich of Gray, TN; two grandchildren, two great-grandchildren, and one great-great-grandchild. Several brothers and sisters, Walter, Frederick, Carl, Elizabeth, Augusta, Pauline, and Sophie are deceased.

Tribute Wall

“ Ludwig Hedderich

October 26, 2023 at 06:42 PM

“ Ludwig Hedderich

January 28, 2023 at 12:44 PM

“ Ludwig Hedderich

January 28, 2023 at 08:03 AM