

Lyn Stafford Welty

July 19, 1944 - October 17, 2021

Lyn Stafford Welty, 77, of Easton MD, passed away on October 17, 2021. She was so grateful for a great life.

Lyn was born in Cambridge, MD on July 19, 1944, to parents Zebulon Hopkins Stafford and Jane Cunningham.

Lyn lived her entire life in Easton, Maryland. She graduated from Saints Peter and Paul High School in 1963. After spending several months in Italy, she attended a fancy finishing school in hopes of making her a “prim and proper” lady. Well, Lyn knew how to be a lady but preferred to be a “country girl”. She received her bachelor’s degree in education from Salisbury College and a master’s degree in education at Salisbury University. Her entire 30-year teaching career was in Talbot County. Lyn began teaching at the elementary level. She transferred to Easton Middle School as an 8th grade Language Arts teacher, and truly found her niche. She spent her remaining 21 teaching years there.

Lyn married the “love of her life” Pete Welty in 1990. They bought a place in Chincoteague, VA and spent every weekend there. Pete could fish and Lyn could sit on the beach and read. Sadly, Pete died in 2004.

She loved spending time on the beach, riding around on her “Princess” golf cart, reading, gardening, her beloved pets and spending time with her friends. Lyn continued to enjoy Chincoteague and once she fully retired, she spent all of Spring, Summer and Fall with her friends and “adopted” family. Lyn was called by many “The Crazy Pony Lady” because she loved the ponies and told everyone that all the babies were hers. Lyn was involved with every aspect of Pony Penning Week. Her favorite part of the Summer.

Lyn attended Trinity Cathedral and served as a Chalice, Altar Guild, and an Acolyte.

Lyn is survived by her daughter: Allison Banks; granddaughter: Zoey Banks; Grandson: Logan Banks. Lyn is also survived by her wonderful Chincoteague Family.

Services will be held at Trinity Cathedral, Easton, MD on Monday, October 25, 2021, at 10 a.m.

In lieu of flowers, please make donations to Trinity Cathedral, Easton, MD or to the Chincoteague Volunteer Fire Department for her 'babies.'

“ I got to know Lyn when I taught at Easton Middle School. She brought a lot of life and spirit into the school organizing extra-curricula activities. She had a gift of many bringing people together and getting the job done. Outside of all the extra things she did, she was a wonderful teacher and gave a lot to her students. My love goes out to her family. Ken Evans

“ Lyn and I met when her family moved to South Aurora St. In Easton. I guess she was about 11 and I a year older. She was a great person . Was sad when her parents decided to move to waterfront property on the Miles. Dated off and on as good friends. She was always very kind and fun.

“ A force of nature. Engaging. Funny. Friendly. Fiercely protective of her family and friends. Cared about everyone around her. Loved life, had some tough times, but focused on the good times. Thankful for the family, friends, and things around her. Loved the beauty of the island and the people on it. We will miss her, and all the things that defined her. She's up in heaven with all the ponies from year's gone by, and I'm sure she's claimed them as her's once again. I can see her riding one now, guiding it along some beach, with a big smile on her face. Wooo hoooo! We love you Lyn, will think about how you treated us and everyone, and carry that on. Love, Rich, Denise, Ryan, and Eric Quickle from Delaware and Tom's Cove.

“ Lyn certainly loved Chincoteague, it's people and especially the ponies. I met Lyn at one of the Round-Ups years ago. Her excitement was infectious and she was so excited as the ponies came through. She was a sweet soul and will be missed by many, but forever remembered. Prayers for you all.

“ I met Lyn by grooming her dogs, she loved them very much and would always tell me that they were her fur babies and to take special care of them during their spa day, as usual I did just that, I will missed her dearly and will never forget the times we had spent together, Fran / Pause For Paws LLC

“ Allison ~

I am truly sorry to hear this news of your mom. She was one special lady and I have many, many fond memories with her. She is now reunited with Pete but she will surely be missed. I got to see her when she would come to the high school to pick up one of the kids. She always greeted my with a big hug and kiss. Thinking of you and the kids.
