“ Dear Janis and all,

Your mother was a blessing to know. She was on the fearsome foursome that grew up together and a blessed friend to my mother, Shirley Sprucebank. I can still hear their laughter and stories. Lynn would come and spend the night with us whenever they were going on a trip and always during the Women of Faith they would attend. What a joy it was to see them together.....friends forever. Well, now they are together again and all things are new. No more sorrow, no more pain, just joy, peace and love. I am so sorry I was unable to attend today, but know that I was with you in spirit. Your dear Mom even remembered my 60th birthday this June with a beautiful card. One day we will all be together again. Until then may the good Lord fill you with His comfort and strength at this difficult time. My thoughts and prayers are with you and if there is anything else I can do, please let me know. Janis- I can say, Bill was there “standing” (yes he can stand and walk once again) with open arms, ready to show her around. Bill was so fond of you and your mom. Lynne was an awesome person and heaven has received a gem. God bless you and your family, (Bill Smith’s Aunt)
