“ My family and I moved to Easton in 1965. Lynn was one of the first students to reach out to me in friendship. We spent time together and she made a trip back to Kinston, North Carolina with my family. We lived on 212 Brookletts Avenue. I have just found out about your loss. Thoughts and prayers to the North family and friends. Carolyn Saieed Williams. New Bern, North Carolina

“ My deepest condolences to the family for this tremendous loss. May the words found at Isaiah 26:19 bring you comfort in knowing that you will one day see Lynne again.

Isaiah 26:19 "Your dead will live. My corpses will rise up. Awake and shout joyfully, You residents in the dust! For your dew is as the dew of the morning, And the earth will let those powerless in death come to life"
