

M. Pauline Dulin

November 9, 1927 - April 30, 2015

Martha Pauline Dulin, of Queenstown, MD, went to be with the Lord on Thursday, April 30, 2015. She was 87.

Pauline was born on November 9, 1927, in Burrisville, DE. She was the daughter of the late Mildred Welch Willoughby and Clark Willoughby. On February 15, 1949, she married the love of her life, John Porter Dulin, III, and they spent 49 years in marriage. Pauline and her husband traveled throughout Europe, the continental United States, Alaska, and Hawaii. They shared a love for flowers, their garden, and their many pets throughout the years.

For the first part of their marriage, Pauline worked alongside her husband raising their family and working on the farm. Her career outside the home started at Tidewater Publishing in Centreville, MD, and ended at Black and Decker in Easton, MD. She enjoyed her career and many co-workers became dear, lifelong friends. Pauline loved her family and considered them her life's greatest accomplishment and took great pride in telling everyone about them. Pauline welcomed each new 'in-law' as if they were her own, and each new grandchild as if it were her first.

Following the death of her husband in 1998, Pauline was welcomed into the loving family of the parishioners at the Wye Bible Church in Grasonville, MD. Friends from her church were often the focus of her week. She so looked forward to her Thursday visits from her devoted, loving granddaughter, Lisa Shagen.

Survived by five daughters, Ann Degano and her husband Ron of Wyoming, DE; Jeanette Darling and her husband Alton of Chestertown, MD; Linda Discus and her husband Earl of Queen Anne, MD, Sharon Haddaway and her husband Skippy of Grasonville, MD, and Barbara South and her husband David of Queenstown, MD, and two sons, John Dulin and his wife Dutch of Centreville, MD, and Mike Dulin and his wife Chris of Grasonville, MD; 16 grandchildren; 26 great-grandchildren; two great-great-grandchildren; and one sister, Irene Hunter of Easton. She is also survived by a loving "sixth daughter," her four-legged companion, Missy.

In addition to her husband, she is predeceased by three brothers, Calvin, Ray, and Leonard Willoughby; her twin sister, Madeline Clough; a grandson, Ronnie Degano; and great-grandson, John Eric Bartels.

A visitation is planned for Monday, May 4 at the Fellows, Helfenbein & Newnam Funeral Home, P.A. in Centreville, MD, from 6-8 p.m. Funeral services will be held at 11 a.m. on Tuesday, May 5, at the Wye Bible Church in Grasonville, MD, where the family will receive friends beginning at 10 a.m. Burial will follow at Chesterfield Cemetery, Centreville, MD.

Memorial Contributions may be made to Wye Bible Church, PO Box 430, Grasonville, MD 21638.

“ I am so sorry to hear that Mrs. Dulin passed away. I like to think that she and Dr. Forney are up in heaven talking about Missy and other very important things. We at the Queen Anne Veterinary Clinic always enjoyed our visits with Mrs. Dulin and Missy. She brightened our days on many occasions. God rest her soul.

“ *The best thing I remember about miss Pauline is the love of her family. She always wanted to be outside in the garden either watering flowers or pulling weeds. Miss Pauline also liked my cooking and especially my crab cakes, she will be missed dearly. I really loved talking to her and listening to her stories. My heart felt sympathy for your family . To the Dulin Family: What a wonderful lady that has surely entered the gates of heaven. It was always a pleasure and joy to see Ms. Pauline. Visited her at Corsica Hills and we had some wonderful chats. Our hearts and blessings are with you at this time. She will be missed by many, but her love for others will always be remembered. Blessings and prayers to you, Lynda and Gene Palmatary
