“ I spent many hours at Aunt Madeline's and Uncle Elwood's house with my cousins Roberta and Ruth when I was a girl. Aunt Madeline was patient and kind and I loved her laughter and easy way. Although she had a large family there was always room for one more and she was always willing to lend a helping hand no matter how busy her life was. I was impressed with that even as a young girl. I am sure she has heard the Lord say of her as she entered heaven's gates, "Well done, good and faithful servant" Matthew 25:23 Emma Jean McDermott, niece
