

Madison Lynn Ewing

October 8, 1992 - June 8, 2025

Madison Lynn Ewing, affectionately known as Maggie and Sweet Pea, passed away on June 8, 2025. Born on October 8, 1992, in Easton, Maryland, Madison was a beloved daughter, sister, granddaughter, niece, and friend who touched the lives of many with her loving and compassionate spirit.

Madison was the cherished daughter of Nancy and David Harris and Martin Ewing. She grew up in Cordova, MD, where she developed her love of swimming, dancing, singing, and collecting CDs. After graduating from high school, Madison attended The Caroline Center, pursuing her interests and goals with passion and dedication.

She is survived by her two brothers, Christopher Ewing and Drake Marshall; her six grandparents, Irene Mayer, Raymond Mayer, Tony Ewing, Brooke Ewing, Nancy A. Harris, and Jack Harris; as well as her niece, Melody Ewing, and nephew, Greyson.

Madison lived her life with a remarkable philosophy: to love unconditionally, harbor no hate, and see no color. She had a unique superpower to bring out the best in everyone she met, inspiring all who knew her. She wanted to share this way of life with the world, believing that if everyone lived as she did, the world would indeed be a better place.

Madison's memory will be forever treasured by her family and friends. She will be deeply missed and fondly remembered for her kindness, joy, and the light she brought into the lives of those around her.
