“ I will miss seeing Malayna at school. I am glad I got a chance to know her during the few months I worked in Ms. Malone's room as a math tutor. The happiness she expressed when we she got a problem right and the little smile on her face will always stay with me. The Lord has another angel!!

“ Two girls, riding in the little golf cart. Zipping around, wind blowing in their face, laughter in their hearts, Simple joys of being young and having fun. Memories of a beautiful young girl, who made our lives better by sharing a few minutes of her precious time. May we be better parents and neighbors as a tribute to her strength and life.

“ My favorite memory of Malayna .... The short time that I knew Malayna changed my life. I never thought, in 1 million years that a little girl would teach me the meaning of life. Malayna did. She taught me that it does not matter how long you live; what matters is what you contribute to others while you are alive.

Malayna is a most precious soul and she is looking down from above watching, at peace, and sending pure love.*
