

"Shugie" Maralee T. Dill

August 23, 1932 - November 7, 2024

Maralee T. Dill, affectionately known to family and friends as Shugie, passed away on Thursday, November 7, 2024, after a courageous eight-month battle with illness. She was 92 years old.

Born in Carmichael, Maryland, on August 23, 1932, Shugie was the daughter of the late Lee and Velma Towers.

A lifelong resident of the area, Shugie was deeply involved in her community, always ready to offer a helping hand whenever and wherever needed. She was a loving and devoted mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother, and took great joy in spending time with her family, sharing meals with friends, and enjoying the beauty of the outdoors. She had a deep connection with nature and loved walking, taking solace in the simple pleasures of life.

Shugie is survived by four children, Peggy Clough (Michael), Jim Tull (Robin), Jeannie Duty (John), and Bill Tull (Cheryl). She was the proud grandmother of six grandchildren: Jamie Clough (Marybeth), Amy Kirby (Steven), Crystal Dudding (Josh), Emmylou Pilkerton (Kenny), John Duty Jr. (Tracie), and Amber Duty (Charlie). Additionally, she leaves behind ten great-grandchildren: Brady Higgs, Brent Higgs, Colin Dudding, Read Dudding, John Duty III, Ryan Duty, Jaxon Pilkerton, Alice Pilkerton, Colton Pilkerton, and Alexa Smith. She is also survived by her sister, Fay Rogers, and sisters-in-law Verona and Ketty

Towers.

Shugie was preceded in death by her beloved husband, William (Buck) Dill, two sons, Hobby Tull and Donald Tull, and her grandson, Courtland Lambert. She was also predeceased by her siblings, Bros Towers, Buddy Towers, Johnny Towers, and Judy Simpson.

The family would like to express their heartfelt gratitude to Bonnie Coleman, as well as Debbie and Kevin Shaw, for their unwavering kindness and support during this difficult time.

I remember a time at the old house when I spent the night and Shugie gave me one of her homemade dill pickles. That is when I met Shugie for the first time and then later at the Church of God in Easton. It was good to see an old friend.

“ I met shugie many years ago in Aglow. We served together on Grasonville Lighthouse Board. She was a sweetheart. Always willing to help someone with her prayers. She was a blessing to all she met. She is with Jesus now and all the others who have gone on before her. May God comfort her family and friends.

*Prayers to the family and many blessings during the loss of Ms. Shugie. She was a great lady who loved her family and friends. Enjoyed talking with her in the grocery store many times. Also, had a good time with her a few months back when I was in rehab. She loved sitting on the porch chatting and waiting for her daughter or son to visit. She will be missed by many. God Bless.
