“Margaret, known as "Peggy" to us in Salisbury, was a faithful parishioner at St. Peter's Episcopal Church for many years and later I encountered her many times over the years at diocesan conventions and other events. Peggy always expressed some affection for me probably because I was one of Karen's classmates from 1st grade onward. (Karen was my favorite roller skating partner when the loud speaker announced "couples' skate." The song was always "Everybody Loves Somebody Sometimes" sung by Dean Martin.)

Peggy, rest in peace in God's eternal Paradise. We will all meet again!

My condolences to Peggy's family who will surely grieve hard over the passing of their precious mother.
