“ What a Beautiful picture you have up of, Mrs. Brobst .I am very sorry to hear of the loss of, Mrs. Brobst. With her accomplishments, her love and joys, she was an amazing woman! I won't pretend to know what you're going through, but what has helped me deal with the loss of those I love, is turning to the Scriptures, something that has been a real source of comfort. One Scripture that gives me hope is, John 11:25, which says, " Jesus said to her: "I am the resurrection and the life. The one who exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." I hope that this verse will also comfort you and, I hope you and your family can get through this difficult time. Please accept my condolences for the loss of your beloved mother, grandma and friend. Sincerely, Meryl

“ My thoughts and prayers are with my cousins and their families. It had been a long time since I had seen Aunt Carmen but she was often in my thoughts. I have a lot of pleasant memories of times spent together...one in particular is the infamous pumpkin pie of a Thanksgiving long ago. It still brings a smile to my face when I think of it. Love and prayers to everyone as you go through this difficult time.
