

Margaret Anna Mary Diamond

October 6, 1930 - March 6, 2013

Margaret Anna Mary Diamond of Betterton, MD. died on Wednesday, March 6, 2013, at her home. \ She was 82.

She was born on October 6, 1930, in New York City, the daughter of the late Peter Francis and Margaret Newhook Velders, and the wife of the late John B. "Jack" Diamond. She was a graduate of Philadelphia General Hospital School of Nursing, Class of 1957. She earned a Bachelor's of Science Degree in Education from Temple University and was pursuing her Master's Degree in Guidance and Counseling.

Mrs. Diamond worked at Philadelphia General Hospital until it closed in 1997.

She began her career as a staff nurse until she was promoted to head nurse in patient care. In 1962, she began her teaching career and continued teaching until 1977. Following the closure of Philadelphia General Hospital, Mrs. Diamond spent two years as a visiting nurse for the city of Philadelphia. In 1979 until her retirement in 1988, she was the Health Care Coordinator of Health Center three for the City of Philadelphia.

She enjoyed collecting stamps, playing sports in her younger years, especially volleyball and softball; cooking, reading, boating, gardening, and traveling. Her most memorable excursions were to Alaska and Canada.

Mrs. Diamond was a very active member of Shrewsbury Episcopal Church where she chaired the Altar Guild for many years. She was a member of Philadelphia General Hospital Alumni Association where in the past she served as president, The American Nurses Association, and the Caldwalder of Kent Questers Chapter.

She is survived by nieces, nephews, cousins, neighbors, and her church and nursing family.

Services will be held on Saturday, March 16, 2013, at 11 a.m. at Shrewsbury Parish in Kennedyville, MD. Interment will be held in Shrewsbury Cemetery following the service.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to Shrewsbury Parish, P.O. Box 187, Kennedyville, MD 21645.
