

Margaret Louise (Ginevan) Johnson

August 5, 1942 - July 27, 2024

Margaret Louise (Ginevan) Johnson of Pasadena, MD passed away on July 27, 2024. She was 81 years old.

She was born in West Virginia on August 5, 1942, the daughter of the late Frances (Montgomery) Ginevan and Bruce Ginevan. In December of 1962, she married her husband, the late Gerald Johnson, and the two lived in Pasadena, MD, where Margaret worked at North East High School for 47 years before retiring in 2010. Her years and dedication to the school earned her a plaque in her honor at the school. She loved playing bingo, attending quarter auctions, Baby Yoda, and keeping in touch with her friends and family on Facebook. She spent the last year of her life living with her daughter Lisa and her husband Todd in Rock Hall, where she soaked up all the time she could with her babies.

In addition to her husband, Gerald Johnson who preceded her in death in 2008, she was also preceded in death by a son, Eddie Johnson and his wife Carol, daughter, Phyllis Johnson, brother, Bubby, and sisters, Carolyn and Betty.

She is survived by her children, Lisa Barry (Todd) of Rock Hall, MD, Gerald Johnson (Joann) of Pasadena, MD, and Mike Johnson of Pasadena, MD; siblings, Irene Bachman, Jean Nichols, and Brucie Ginevan, all of Pasadena, MD; grandchildren: Angela (Eddie A.), Lacey (Keith Sr.), Tiffani, Lil Eddie, Stephanie, Justin L., and Justin W.; and great-grandchildren, Brexton, Sophia, Keith Jr., Kaydence, Ryker, Wyatt, Kirsten, Caelin, Madelyn, and Bentley.
