“ Peggy was one of a kind. She was full of love and laughter and a beautiful kindness that was felt by every soul she touched. I miss my walking buddy as we were both a bit slow but I loved her company. I remember her coming over to load up on items for the "ball" and having fun digging through my arts and crafts room. The world is a better place because of her time here but the heavens are brighter with her love shining down upon us. We will meet again! Enjoy the next leg of your journey, we will catch up to you soon.

I got to know Peggy through the Gals Read program at Sudlersville Elementary School. She was a wonderful reader and kind and loving person. I could always count on her to lend a hand and bring her warmth and enthusiasm to every student she came in contact with. She will be missed.

I always loved Peggy's example of "showing Up" . If there were a class, a celebration, whatever was going on Peggy was there to participate and support you. I can't imagine her not being there the next time our group gets together. Condolences to her daughter, grand daughters and family. May you find solace from your grief in remembering Peggy and her grit and tenacity, her love for you.

I'll always remember talking with Peggy as we watched others set up the ritual space for one of Keepers' solar holiday celebrations. She made me a welcome guest and helped me understand the Assembly in a way I hadn't seen even after a year of membership in another coven. I will miss her.

“ Joe and I loved Peggy so much! For years, she and Joe drove to and from the meetings and rituals with their spiritual group together. And Peggy and I sometimes met in Dover or Smyrna for lunch, to catch up on each other's news. You know, I never EVER heard Peggy say an unkind word about anyone! She could be a little bit ornery, though....that was part of the fun! I interviewed her and wrote her life's journey in 3 or 4 parts for our spiritual group's newspaper. She really led an awesome life!
with love,
