“ I have known Ann for many years. Our sons grew up together and spend a lot of time at each others houses. She was the sweetest person, always a smile, no matter what. She loved her children and was just a great lady to be around. Her infectious laugh and smile would light a room. May her beautiful soul rest in God's hands and her soul soar in the heavens above. She suffers no more. To her children, you were her loves. God Bless your family. I know she will be missed terribly. My deepest condolences. Zoa Ann Knapp Beasley
