“ Mom was always a lady. She never went out without her make up and always was dressed neatly. You would never see her in dirty clothes even when working in the yard. She was always there to listen and offer advice. I was always amazed at her ability to sew her own clothes. She made beautiful garments for herself and Bev Jean and I. She was the only woman I know who wore panty hose with shorts. My funniest memory of her was when she came out of her bedroom wearing an outfit that I thought was a police uniform. It was actually a uniform of Dad's when he was in the merchant marines. I thought someone had broken into the house and I went over a living room chair trying to get out of the house. When I realized it was Mom, we laughed for a long time. She was more of a mother to me than y own mother. I will miss her forever. I love you Mom and hope you and Dad are watching over us all.

“ My Aunt Marg was a beautiful loving crazy lady! I think one of my favorite memories of her is that , she was given a batch of sour dough which obviously smells sour and had been handed down and around for years and she poured it down the the drain because it smelled sour! I will love and miss you always!
