

Margaret L. Wilson

February 8, 1919 - July 10, 2012

Margaret L. Wilson, age 93, of Easton, MD, passed away peacefully on Tuesday, July 10. She was the beloved wife of Charles J. (Joe) Wilson who predeceased her on January 16, 2007. Margaret was born on February 8, 1919, in Enumclaw, WA, the daughter of the late, Roy and Emma DeWeese.

She met Joe in Seattle, WA, during World War II, and they settled in Maryland at the end of the war. They lived in Rockville for 40 years where they raised their family. In her younger years, Margaret enjoyed sewing and canning the product of Joe's garden. She was a member of St. Mary Church in Rockville and was active in all parish activities, especially the church fair and Christmas bazaar. Margaret and Joe retired to Easton in 1990 and moved to William Hill Manor in 2000.

Margaret loved all aspects of retired life in Easton, especially bridge and poker. She was a longtime member of Sts. Peter & Paul parish and Talbot County Women's Club. Later in life, she was always busy with a knitting project. Margaret spent her last days in dreams that produced smiles, perhaps of future card games in heaven.

Margaret is survived by her three children, Peggy Grogan of Easton, Gail (John) Langenus of Bloomfield, CT, Kevin (Debbie) of Stevensville, MD; six grandchildren, Patrick Grogan, Kelly Grogan, Colin Langenus, Sean (Ali)

Langenus, Ryan Langenus and Benjamin Wilson. She is also survived by two beloved great-grandsons, Matthew Grogan and Jack Langenus.

The family would like to extend a special thank you to the caregivers of Home Instead for their loving and loyal care over the last five years.

Visitation will be held on Friday, July 20, from 5 to 7 p.m. at Fellows, Helfenbein & Newnam Funeral Home, P.A., 200 S. Harrison St., Easton. A mass of Christian burial will be celebrated at 10 a.m. on Saturday, July 21. at Sts. Peter & Paul Catholic Church, with a reception following in the auditorium at William Hill Manor, 501 Dutchman's Lane in Easton.

Donations in lieu of flowers may be made to Talbot Hospice Foundation, www.talbothospice.org, 586 Cywood Dr. Easton, MD 21601.

“ Dear Gail and John and all family members of the Joe and Margaret Wilson clan.

John and I have been friends with Gail and John for many, many years and have warm memories of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson when they visited the young Langenus boys and later, when the boys were older, in the Langenuses sharing amusing stories from the family lore, and stories of Christmases spent together. We always enjoyed your parents and were glad to know them. I'm happy for the long life she enjoyed and all the very special memories you all have because of that.

Of course, the most recent special pictures of her seeing her new great-grandson Jack were very special to us, and we were so glad that the occasion could occur.

May God take her into his loving care and bring comfort to all of you at this time.

“ I wish to express my condolence. While, I did not know Mrs. Wilson personally , I like so many others have personally experienced the deep emotional emptiness death causes. I find support in reading the Bible's comforting message. And, while it does not completely eliminate the pain, it does give some comfort. For example, Revelation 21:4 says "And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying." I find those words comforting and wanted to share them with the family.
