

Margaret T. Mullikin

December 23, 1921 - January 3, 2011

Margaret (Marge) Taylor Mullikin of Easton passed away surrounded by her family on January 3, 2011.

Born in Trappe on December 23, 1921, she was the daughter of the late, William Norman and Catherine “Kate” Taylor.

Marge has lived in Easton all of her life. She is well known in the community for her love of people. Everyone was welcome in her home. She was always available for a visit and was a great listener. You could usually find her at her kitchen table where the town of Easton was a picture through her window. She began her long career as a salesperson in 1956 with the Children’s Shop and then Mary’s Little Lamb. Later, she worked for Randall’s in Easton. She loved selling clothes and seeing both children and adults dressed well. She went above and beyond as a salesperson, calling customers on the phone to remind them of sales or let them know an item she thought they might like had arrived. Many of those customers became friends for life, as did all the friends of her children, who called her home their home.

Marge is survived by her daughters, Kay Duehrssen and her husband, Ray, of Easton, and Donna Kachura of Edgewater, MD; a son, Robert “Bob” Mullikin and his wife, Robin, of Wittman; her grandchildren: Matthew Kachura (Brook) of Eldersburg, MD, Daniel Kachura (Suzanne) of Sykesville, MD, Joshua Kachura (Angela) of Baltimore, MD, Kate Mullikin of CA, Robert Mullikin (Nalise) of Easton and Anne Marie Clopin (Will) of Cambridge; her step-grandchildren: Michael Duehrssen (Susan) of NE, and Brian Duehrssen (Susan) of Crofton, MD; her great-grandchildren: Henry Mullikin, Ellie Kachura, Asher Kachura, Griffin Kachura, and Mason Clopin; her step-great-grandchildren: Adrianna Duehrssen, Madeline Duehrssen and Ava Duehrssen; her nieces: Patricia Rasmussen (David) of Hopkintown, MA, Carol Bonner (Daniel) of Essex, MD, and Janice Galt (Dwight) of Silver Spring, MD; her nephew, Norman Taylor (Kathy) of Ashburn, VA; her grand nieces and nephews: Andrea Rasmussen of NY, Christopher Rasmussen (Melanie) of MA, Mary Patricia Rasmussen of Washington, DC, Katie Krache (Jeff) and their son, Cam, of MD, Annie Bonner of NJ, Angela and Teri Galt of MD and Thomas and Dwight Galt of Silver Spring, MD; and many very special friends and caregivers. She was preceded in death by her husband, Robert Mullikin; her daughter, Mary Jo Mullikin; her brother, Thomas Morris Taylor (Corinne "Winnie"); her sisters, Marie Clague (Earl), Jean Lord (Hubert) and Frances Howell (John); and a step-granddaughter, Beth Duehrssen.

A funeral liturgy will be celebrated at 11:00 am on Saturday, January 15, 2011 at Sts. Peter and Paul Catholic Church in Easton, where she has been a lifetime member.

Friends may call at the Fellows, Helfenbein & Newnam Funeral Home, P.A. in Easton on Saturday, January 15 from 9:00 – 10:30 am.

Burial will follow at Spring Hill Cemetery in Easton with Matthew Kachura, Daniel Kachura, Joshua Kachura, Rob Mullikin, Hill Lappen and Bob Wood serving as pall bearers.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Talbot County EMS, 605 Port Street, Easton, MD 21601, or the Talbot Hospice Foundation, 586 Cynwood

Dr., Easton, MD 21601.

Funeral arrangements by Fellows, Helfenbein & Newnam Funeral Home, P.A.

“ We were so sorry to here of Margie's passing. It has been alot of years since we had seen her but we will never forget her great smile and her very friendly personality. My mom Ann Fischer was a regular shopper at the Children's Shop. Margie treated us like family and dressed us for many years. She will live in our hearts and memories forever. Our thoughts and prayers are with you all.##imported-begin##Ann Fischer and daughter Kim Stewart##imported-end##

“ This special lady, My Favorite Marge, will always hold a very special place in my heart. She showed me what unconditional love and acceptance were at a time in my life when I really needed it. She welcomed me into her home and into her heart, always with open arms. I will always remember talking around the kitchen table, cleaning out drawers and wrapping the many Christmas presents! Kay, Donna, Bobby and everyone: My thoughts, prayers and love are with you all. You were truly blessed to have Marge in your lives. We all were...

“ We understand what you're going through, because We've experienced the loss of someone very dear in our life, too- and even though every person has to get through a time like this in their own way, I know you will come through. Someday, the pain will ease and the memories will bring comfort, just as they did for us, and soon you'll find yourself back in the stream of things. We know... We've been there, too.

“ To the family of Mrs. Mullikin: I was saddened to learn the death of Mrs. Mullikin. I can remember very clearly my mother taking me to the Children's Shop to purchase my clothes when I was a young girl. She would always have something for me to try on and we would never come out of the shop unless we had a bag. I can remember my mother always being happy that I could find a pretty dress to wear. My deepest sympathy to you at this time with my prayers. Your mother will always be remembered as part of my life when I was growing up.....her love for others will never be forgotten.
