

Marguerite Dunlop

February 10, 2004

Marguerite Dudley Dunlop of Lynchburg, VA, formerly of Chestertown, MD died on Tuesday, February 10, 2004 at the Lynchburg Health and Rehabilitation Center in Lynchburg, VA. She was 84.

Born on February 23, 1919 on the Eastern Shore, she was the daughter of the late Hiram Goodhand and Marguerite Applewhaite Dudley. She moved to Wilmington, DE where she obtained her nursing degree as a registered nurse and was employed by the Wilmington Medical Center as the night shift nursing supervisor at Delaware Memorial Hospital for many years until her retirement. After retirement, she and her husband moved to Chestertown, MD.

She was the past regent of the Major Samuel Turbitt Wright chapter of the daughters of the American Revolution. She was also a member of the Order of the Eastern Star, the National Society of Colonial Dames, and the Historical Society. Marguerite enjoyed World traveling, family genealogy, and embroidery. She was a loving, caring person, not only as a nurse, but as a wife, mother, grandmother, great grandmother and aunt. She will be greatly missed and will remain in our hearts forever.

She was preceded in death by her loving husband Craig "Hootie" Dunlop of 51 years and a brother, Hiram G. Dudley, Jr.

Mrs. Dunlop is survived by two daughters, Marguerite Schreier of North Star, DE and Charlotte A. Dunlop of Lynchburg, VA; five grandchildren, David C. Savidge of Middletown, DE, Steven C. Savidge of Laurel, DE, Jennifer D. McDowall of San Antonio, TX, Heather M. Round of Lynchburg, VA and PFC Jonathan W. Ruebeck USMC; two great grandsons and two great granddaughters.

Graveside service will be held at the Old Wye Cemetery, Wye Mills, MD on Saturday, February 14, 2004 at 11:00 AM.

In lieu of flowers contributions may be made to your local Alzheimer's Association.

Arrangements by Fellows, Helfenbein and Newnam Funeral Home, P. A., Chestertown, MD.
