“ My life is forever changed since you spread your wings and took the fast pass to Heaven. You were always like a Mom to me as well as my wonderful friend. Always there to help & you always knew what to do when I was sad. The children of the neighborhood loved you so much. I remember Jessica tagging you with the name Aunt Maug Maug and the younger kids followed suit. I will miss our chats and all the things we shared. Love you so much Aunt Maug.

“ Aunt marguerite,
Since I did not have a chance to visit with you recently like I had hoped, I just want to say thank you! I was very fortunate to call you my neighbor for the first 18 years of my life. I have so many wonderful childhood memories because of you. . Playing hide and seek in your yard, watching soap operas with you after school, Playing kitchen with your leftover vegetables from the garden, the list goes on and on. You not only kept your freezer full of ice cream for the neighborhood children but also kept dog treats on hand for Sandy's numerous daily visits to your back door. I am forever grateful for the time that I had with you and the love you had for all of us. May you rest in peace aunt marguerite.
