“ My grandparents, Caroline and Richard Wheatley lived next door to Miss Margie for as long as I can remember. They were great neighbors to them. I would go with my grandmother to get her hair done. She was a very sweet lady, heart of gold and lots of energy!!! So sorry for your loss!

“Margie and Neavitt Lomax were 2 of the first people I met back in 1958 (58 years!) when I began dating Giles Alderman, who was to become my husband in 1959. They were so welcoming to me and were such fun to be with. Giles was the younger one of the group and Margie nicknamed him "Cutie". That name stuck until Giles's death and still today to the few of us from back then. Margie became a friend to me also and I have always valued that. We spent many good times together and some laughs and a few sad times. Quite a woman. I like to think her soul is reunited with loved ones and friends.
