Known by friends as Juanita, Juanita was a loving, caring and determined woman. She had a spunkiness to her and how she lived her life. She worked hard her entire life. Juanita was always taking care of her family and friends. She was talented in many areas of life. Juanita loved her garden and created a beautiful garden space. She could make anything you needed using her sewing machine. She was a huge do-it-yourself type of person and loved a challenge.

Juanita worked at William Hill for many years and volunteered at Talbot Hospice. She was always taking a new class of some sort, always learning something new. She believed in education and never stopped learning.

She loved deeply and was loved by her family and friends. Juanita will be greatly missed by her friends and family.

with deepest sympathy to Juanita's children, and grandchildren. We had the pleasure of being her neighbor and friend for 20 years on Fox Road Easton. She always looked out for our girls, and she will be forever missed. RIP good friend.
