

Maria Meletakos Mitchell

October 15, 1939 - May 13, 2022

Maria Meletakos Mitchell is now at peace and with God after fighting a battle with Alzheimer's Disease for over ten years. She will reunite with her parents Stella and Pete, her sisters, Betty and Stephanie, and brother Nick.

Born and raised in Washington, D.C., Maria attended Calvin Coolidge High School and was a member of Saints Constantine and Helen Greek Orthodox Church. After graduating, Maria began a successful career working for the U.S. Department of State and achieved high security clearances.

Maria dedicated her life to making people happy by giving, sharing, and helping. To know her was to love her. She had the type of contagious personality where everyone wanted to be around her, and she could "really work a room". Maria loved to cook and bake, especially her favorite Greek dishes. Some are on the menu at Momma Maria's Mediterranean Bistro, in Trappe, Maryland, which the family opened to honor her hospitality. She also loved to go to Ocean City and lay on the beach and drink Piña Coladas.

She is survived by her husband Thomas, son Dorian, daughter Teresa and husband Curtis Snyder and new granddaughter Eleni Ann, plus sisters Alicia and Francyne and brother and sister-in-law Joseph and Liz.

There will be a memorial mass at Saints Peter and Paul Catholic Church, Friday, May 20 at 2PM. Reception will follow at the Maria M. Mitchell Social Hall at Saints Peter and Paul Church.

Maria's favorite saying was "Love you more" and we all certainly did and will forever.

“ My sincere condolences to your family on the loss of your wife and mother. The year that you were opening Maria’s, I had first met and spoke to Tom in the Trappe P.O. He told me that the restaurant was soon to open and that it was named after his wife. He mentioned that it would serve some Greek dishes in her honor and spoke so lovingly about her. You will be kept in my prayers.

“ Maria, Nona’ (Greek Godmother), as we knew her in our family, made many happy memories with us. We will never forget her. I wish everyone could have the love and a sincere friend that we had in her. She was beautiful and we laughed so much with each other. Love forever Nona’ from me, Rich, and Rob. ”

“ Maria will always be one of my favorite people I’ve ever known and it’s so true, to know her was to love her. I can’t find the words to describe what she meant to me but I cherish the wonderful memories I have of cooking with the Culinary Club in her amazing kitchen and endless conversations about our children. Heaven definitely gained an Angel but I know she will never be far away from her beloved Tom, Dorian and especially Teresa and baby Eleni. She was pure love and grace. ”

“ *Maria never sugar coated any conversation with me - loved her honesty. She had a huge heart - loved her cooking and especially her baking. She will truly be missed. A very loving kind woman.
