“ *I was very sorry to learn of Miss Marian's death, but her life was certainly something to admire and aspire toward. Since I'm a sailor/boater, she and I often talked about boats and she had a wonderful boating history.
I am pleased to have 2 of her paintings in my home, one of redwing blackbirds and one of our church.
Her smile, amazing attitude and zest for life were an inspiration and I am blessed for having known her.
May she rest in peace with her beloved husband.
In sympathy, Lynn Bickley##imported-begin##Lynn K. Bickley,

“ I was so sad to read about Marion's passing. She was remarkable in so many ways. She was a wonderful person and a gifted artist. My husband, Cliff and I, met Marion and Walt thru the Davis Creek Yacht Club. What a pair they were - they enjoyed life so much!! As a couple we couldn't help but notice how much love they shared -- we learned so much from them. I am so happy that Marion and Walt are together again in heaven!##imported-begin##Kathy Levering##imported-end##

“ Walter and Family, Words could never express our sympathy at the loss of your beloved Mother but we are so glad that she did not suffer. We shall really miss her at all our Family functions. She was a part of our family and we loved her so very much. What a blessing to have had her in our lives; lovely memories for us to hold.##imported-begin##Mark and Sandy Joiner##imported-end##
