“ I am so sorry for your loss. Cousin Marie was a remarkable woman. I can remember as a little girl growing up visiting the farm and all the happy memories of cousin Marie and Fred having lots of crab feasts and enjoying all the happy memories of the De Poulter and Bowers families getting together. May the Connolly family be at peace knowing that your Mom is with your Father and all your loved ones.

God Bless

To Fred, Jimmy, Pat, Bobby, Rita, Gary: What a wonderful, wonderful lady. No doubt she will be missed by all. Every thought of her fills my heart with joy. Her gracious smile/grin had a way of making everyone relax feel welcome. I'll always treasure the visits to Fred's and Marie's farm. She had a quality of bringing out the best in people In a very gentle manner. God just added another angel to his kingdom. May God bless each one of you. Peace be with you....Henry

Words alone cannot describe Marie Connolly. The living Spirit of Jesus Christ emerged from Mom everytime you were with her. A loving and giving Lady who would never let you leave without feeding you. What a blessed family the Connollys are to have their parents so long. And the best thing is knowing she is in Heaven to be reunited once again with us all. Love you Mom. Your adopted son Steve.
