“ My dearest brother Kenney- Marilyn will always hold a very special place in my heart. She was like a sister to me and she was a best friend to me. I will always cherish my memories of her and the hours we would spend chatting on the phone atleast 2-3 times per week. I will never forget the many Thanksgivings and Christmas we spent with you and her at your house after Dad passed away. You lit up her heart and she lit up yours. I know how much you loved her and she loved you. You were the best thing that happened to her and she was the best thing that happened to you. I will never forget when I almost lost Robert before his transplant how she would call every single night to see how he was doing and for the last 4 years how she would call and always ask HOW IS ROBERT DOING. She loved Robert and he loved her. She treated my grandkids like they were her own and she always asked how are your babies. She will never be forgotten and my prayers are with you and I will always be there for you. I love you and may the Lord be with you. Your loving sister Ruthie and brother-in-law Robert. God bless you and your family.

“ Kenney and Family - So sorry for your loss. Marilyn and I worked together many, many years ago at American Federal and then Perpetual American. She always kept in touch sharing the gossip of former co-workers or just checking on the best way to finance something for one of the kids. She will be missed but not forgotten.

“ Please accept my condolences Marilyn will be sorely missed. I loved her outlook on life. No matter what she maintained her smile and her joy. I will cherish those memories of her. In Ecclesiastes 7:1 it states “A name is better than good oil, and the day of death than the day of one’s being born.” Marilyn accomplished this; she made a good name for herself. We all have fond memories of her that will stay with us for a lifetime. May the God of Comfort sustain you and your family during this time of mourning.

“ Hello Ken,
I am Marcellus. I worked with Marilyn in the mailroom for a while when she was first hired at ULLICO. She was truly a very nice woman. I can remember when she had tickets to go see the BOSS "Bruce Springsteen it think it was at RFK. She was the one person who turned me on to him. She always spoke highly of her loving family.

My condolences go out to you and the entire family.

God bless you and your family

“ Dear Kenny . . .

My name is Melissa Taylor and Marilyn and I shared an office before she retired. Condolences to you and the family. We all know how wonderful she was. I'm glad I had the pleasure of knowing her. Whenever she could she would tell me how much she loved you, the kids and grand kids. I heard about summer in Ocean City, I even met Dalton and his younger brother when they were small boys, spoke often the first year you all moved to Delaware. Though we lost touch but never love. She always had a place in my heart.

Take care

Marilyn Harding was like the rest of you . . . our lives intersected on life's highway and we chose to travel together for a while. My time with her was first blocked by others with agendas . . . we moved passed them and dealt only with each other and that's when a beautiful friendship began . . . The only two in an office in the basement of corporate America. We shared our lives over cubicles, between doing or jobs and the sound of sobs masked in words of "I'm okay." She put spiritual band aids on some very dark times in my life like any mother would when they hear a child they love hurt. When she retired and moved to Delaware with her beloved husband Kenny we kept up with each other's lives through phone calls, then life pulled us away. She was in my thoughts so strong but I didn't seek her out. She died on the 18th, the day before her 67th birthday. The tears I never cried for my beloved dad are commingled. Both of them made living grand! Bye Marilyn, se you soon!
