“ Can not think of the words to express our feelings and sorrow on losing Mark . Its a shock to Steve and me. Mark was a friend to us at Chesapeake College, Mark was the gentleman on the soccer field. His laughter, smiles and genuine kindness to everyone he met or called his friend. Mark will be missed by many, he loved life. We pray for his children to always know you were in his heart and never forget the memories you and your dad shared.

“ I remember playing in the streets of Preston in the late 50's and early 60's. I would run into him later in life at Friel Lumber on occasion and he still had that giant smile 😊 I'm sure he touched many people in a positive way.
