“ Pam and Family,

I'm certainly sorry to hear of Moe's passing. I knew he was having some medical problems; I just did not know how severe. I can truly say "I somewhat know what you are going through" - my wife passed on the 3rd, and her funeral was friday.

Again, I offer my condolences.

I worked for moe in 2003 and he was a great guy he always told me that I reminded him of himself when he was my age .i true repo man and a tough hill billy lol . I only wish I could have said good bye . Every time I was working by his shop I would stop in and see him . And it was like a son seeing his dad .thats how he treated me , the repo industry lost one of the best ! You made every one around you feel like family . Tough love . I will miss the good talks we had . Rest easy now you are embraced with wings of the angels and the love of Jesus . Love you brother . Matt wojo

“ When we would talk or email you would always said, Hey Moe this is handsome Moe. We did the frist Rolling Thunder together, Ronnie Nicky, Al, You, me, think there was one or two other people, we started what has become a huge traditation every Memorial Day, from the Greenbelt Legion. I remember when my son Jamie started working with you, it made us even closer, you said,I will not let him out on his own until I am sure he is damn good, we'r brothers, I'll take care of him, I trusted and as always you were true to your word. We had some great times, you shared some rough ones with me as well. Our conversations are treasures, you are as good a friend as any man could ever have Moe, you are family, this is to soon my brother, but we have to understand. Pam, there are no words to that can erase this loss or the pain of it, but you will find comfort knowing that you made this man so happy, the wonderful time and memories are yours. Cherish them as we all will cherish ours of this good man. And so my friend until our paths again cross, Although we can no longer hold you in our arms we will forever hold you in our hearts, God Bless you my friend, love you Big Moe.....Moe & Marie Grimes and all of the Grimes Family.

“ Pam, it's hard to put into words all of the crazy memories of Moe and the whole gang of friends and I had over the years. Good times at your wedding and the picnics in the back yard, bike week in Daytona, trips to Ocean City, Christmas visits and parties at the shop in Ridgley. I will not be able to attend the service as I have a prior DJ committment but my heart will be with you and your family. There will not be another day when the 3 amigos (Moe, Large, and Jimmy) will not cross my mind with love. While I'm DJing I'll dedicate "There's a Tear in My Beer" to Moe and all his biker friends from here to South Carolina.

“ Moe's passing has a left a hole in my heart. Moe celebrated my 21st birthday with me by drinking too many watermelon shooters at Lanham Inn. We celebrated Moe's 50th birthday with him by parasailing in Florida. There are countless memories over the years. We will miss him.

““Share a Memory”? Oh that's priceless... I can share so many. Moe was Kevin's Godfather. My bestfriend just asked "is that why Kevin's middle name was Wayne?" Oh yes my friend that is the least of why Kevin Wayne Murphy-Morris was named after my Moe. No one could have had a better friend. We were best friends in those old Lanham Inn days. He stood by me every step of the pregnancy. It snowed like a bitch at 4AM when I went into labor and called him and told him to come on and drive me to the hospital on that February 7th in 1983. I held Moe's big strong hand and cussed him through that labor - he stayed as calm as they come.

Jeez did I bitch through the pain that morning! And Moe just stayed "nice" through the whole thing - and let me tell you that's the nicest a man could have been who wasn't the father - or even a lover! Lol - (And as most of us who knew and loved him - there were times when our Moe wasn't always kind and "nice" - haha - oh no! Moe told it like it was)!

Later that day he did admit he was a nervous wreck driving through the snow and getting me to PG Hospital 30 minutes before my little boy was born. And you better believe he had a bottle of cold champagne under his coat an hour later to celebrate after they wheeled me and that handsome kid to our room. We laughed and joked and he was there for years - when Kevin was not even 10 days old Moe held him in his big ol' arm while he took him for his first Harley ride around the yard. Moe shared many secrets with that boy of mine, and taught him some stuff I was NEVER allowed to know (thank heavens - Lol)...

Kevin left this world almost 4 years ago - with him went my heart, I'm glad they'll be together now. And I know he was standing there to welcome Moe - to help pave the way maybe and make it easier for Moe to get to know how things are in the next place. Goddesses these tears are blinding me as I type. But oh my I was so very lucky to have Moe in my life.

And Pam? He was so happy to have you in his life. You made it all so much easier for him.

“Share a Memory”? Oh yes - I have lots of them - as many of us do. And some REALLY freakin' good ones - you better believe it... Lol...

“ I don't have too many memories to share, but I do know that Moe and Pam treated my daughter just like one of their own grandchildren whenever she was around. He was such a great man and I feel honored to have known him. My heart goes out to Pam (his beautiful wife),(my precious chic), Missy and her beautiful daughters , Ashley and Bailey! May you all know that he is painfree now and will be looking down on each and everyone of you. Much Love to you all. XOXO Michelle
