

Marsha E. Lonergan

October 25, 2013

The family of Marsha Calhoun Lonergan of Oxford, MD, sadly announces her death on the afternoon of October 25, 2013, after a long fight with cancer.

She was the loving wife of Robert Lonergan, the proud mother of Bob Lonergan of Atlanta, mother-in-law of Alexandra Classen Lonergan, and grandmother of pretty Taylor, handsome Ransom, and baby "Bear" Barrington. She is missed.

A memorial service will be held on November 9, 2013, at 4 p.m. at the Church of the Holy Trinity in Oxford.

“Ps 147:3 says "He heals the brokenhearted ones, and he binds up their wounds." We need comfort in many areas of life. One of the greatest causes of grief is the loss of a loved one in death, especially a beloved marriage mate or a child. In times of distress, we may need comfort that soothes our heart, our mind, our emotions, and both our physical and spiritual health. For example, consider the heart. God's Word acknowledges that our heart can be "broken and crushed." (Ps. 51:17) Even in severe situations, God can bring relief to a stricken heart if we pray to him in full faith and observe his commandments.
