

Martha E. Carroll

January 5, 1918 - June 24, 2015

Martha Eastwick (Pat) Carroll of Easton, MD, died peacefully in her residence on Wednesday, June 24, 2015, at age 97.

The fourth child of the late Andrew and Estelle (Stinson) Eastwick, Pat was born at home in the Mt. Washington neighborhood of Baltimore. She attended the Baltimore Friends Schools, Westtown School, and Swarthmore College. Upon graduation with the Class of 1940, Pat married the late John G. Carroll, also of Baltimore, and settled for 25 years in a home in Towson, MD, where the couple raised two sons.

On a typical summer weekend, Pat would pack the family off to the cabin cruiser "Aqua Patch" for two glorious days on the upper Chesapeake Bay. Summer also included a month at Ocean City.

As retirement years approached, Pat & Jack re-established their lives on Island Creek in Oxford, MD. It was here that they enjoyed almost 40 years on and near the Bay, hosting sons and grandsons, and being a contributing part of the Oxford and Easton communities. Pat lived her remaining years at William Hill Manor.

Pat was preceded in death by three sisters, Marion E. Sullivan, Estelle E. Stephens, Dorothy E. Seaton; and a brother, Andrew M. Eastwick Jr. She is survived by sons, John G. Carroll (Ginger Corsini) of Pocasset, MA, and Thomas E. Carroll (Sue Carter Hawkins) of Cape May, NJ; grandsons, Jason E. Carroll of New York, NY, and Ian T. Carroll (Amy McNally) of Washington, DC.

A private service will be held at Holy Trinity Episcopal Church, Oxford MD. Memorial donations may be made in Pat's memory to the Chesapeake Bay Foundation, 6 Herndon Avenue, Annapolis, MD 21403.

One of our favorite photos of this dear couple, Pat and Jack Carroll, taken on a weekend with them in Cape May, October 1994. These are friends who came into our lives who will forever be in our hearts. What a blessing to have had so many memories with them in Oxford. Our love and prayers are with Tom, Sue, John, and the grandchildren. ~Pat and Steve Wheaton

“ I was so very saddened to learn of the passing of your dear mother. As I read the obituary, wonderful memories came flooding back and the recollection of her sweet smile and always kind words. She and your dad always made me feel so welcome in their home. She even gave me a wonderful wedding shower that I will never forget. She was such a gracious lady and oh so kind. She will be missed. My sympathies to you and your families. Fondly, Sharon Corkran, daughter of Bill and Lucile Corkran
