“ There are so many memories I don't know where to begin Mama! One of my most favorite memories was when you and I went on one of our almost every week daytime movie dates when I lived in Bowie and you in Edgewater. We went to see Halloween H2O in the middle of the week and middle of the day so when we got our EXTRA LARGE AND EXTRA BUTTERY bucket of popcorn and drinks we proceeded to the theater our movie was playing in only to find it was completely empty so we sat directly in the middle for the PERFECT view. While we were sitting there idly chatting and laughing at our days shopping blunders the lights suddenly went completely dark and the first preview came on and it was for the new Friday the 13th and we both were freaked by it. Then out of the darkness comes this huge man that (out of ALL of the empty seats) comes and sits directly in front of us and freaked us out even more!! Then we started whispering back and forth to each other and I said, "Who in the world comes by themselves to watch a serial killer movie in the middle of the day?", and then you replied, "Maybe he is one, and he is here to take pointers and notes!!!" LOL, to which I then said, "Well Mama why don't you look up in his lap and check for a note pad or a butcher knife so we can get the hell out of here!!" Then we just laughed and jumped from some parts of the movie the whole way through. Then when it was over you grabbed my arm and we ran out of that theater before that creepy guy in front of us could see our faces....we ran so fast like our hair was on fire Mama!! I loved and cherish to this day our little Mama and Son dates and will forever miss them and forever miss you! I think of you always and my love for you will NEVER fade I promise, and your memory will live on through me always!! I love you Mama and may God hold you ever so gently in his arms whenever you need him!! God bless you and your sweet loving soul forever and ever!! <3 <3 <3 <3 <3 <3

“ To the family,
I would like to extend my heartfelt condolences on the loss of your loved one, Martha Hall. The passing of a loved one can leave a person feeling lost and heartbroken. However, the bible is a sure source of comfort for those who have lost loved ones in death. I hope you find comfort in knowing that soon all those in the memorial tombs or grave will be raised up back to life in perfect conditions free from mourning, outcry, pain, and death (John 5:28,29; Revelation 21:3-5). These are just few of many comforting scriptures. If you would like to know more about how to cope with the loss of your loved one, please feel free to visit www.jw.org.

“ I believe I mentioned this a month or so ago someplace else but seeing Aunt Martha walking over to our house in Greenbelt was one of my earliest memories ever. She also had a very distinctive way of saying my name, second only to my mother.

In the years since she has been a wonderful Aunt, the times we had been able to get together her spirit lifted me up and it was very very plain that she cared for and loved me, I will miss that and cherish the times we were able to be together. I know she was a wonderful baby sister to my mother and the imprint of these two will stay with me forever.

I know that the energy of one's self cannot in the scheme of things die out. Based on the energy and vitality this woman showed in life I know that that energy is now above, watching over those she loved. I count myself fortunate to be one of them.

Kenny, Patricia, Kenny Jr., Briana, Kylie and all the rest of ya'all. Please know that you have my and my son's deepest sympathy and love.

Sleep My Sister
© T. Hutchinson

*I wish you sweet sleep, my sister dear.
Although there's so much that you've left bare
I hate that you had to endure such pain
On my mind, your saddened eyes have left a stain.*

*I want to know what crossed your mind
Unspoken words you've left behind
Undone things we'll never do
No sharing thoughts you never knew.*

*A peace has fallen upon your head
A taste of sorrow we have been fed
It really is like a hole in our lives
One swiftly dug but carved out by knives.*

*But I have hope that those sleeping will rise
The Bible says that God will open their eyes.
No suffering, sickness, yes not even pain,
Those who did good, eternal life they'll gain.*

*So... sleep on my sister, sleep tight
For now with you the sky is night.
But after night will come daybreak
Therefore I will wait hoping to see you awake.*

“ I thought I saw her face today
In the sparkle of the morning sun.
And then I heard the angel say
“Her work on earth is done.”

*I thought I heard her voice today
Then laugh her hearty laugh.
And then I heard the angel say
“There’s peace little one at last.”*

*I thought I felt her touch today
In the breeze that rustled by.
And then I heard the angel say
“The spirit never dies.”*

*I thought that she had left me
For the stars so far above.
And then I heard the angel say
“She left you with her love.”*

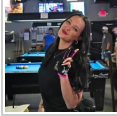

*I thought that I would miss her
And never find my way.
And then I heard the angel say
“She’s with you every day.”*

*You’ll be missed greatly by so many!!! Love & miss you so much,
Aunt Martha!!!!*

Rest in Peace.

*Love Always,
Your Great Niece, Kathy*

“ Kenny on behalf of my family and Carly's family we want you and your entire family know how saddened we are by the sudden loss of your mother. Although we never met, I knew she was a kind person with a big heart because she made you and also was very charitable when she contributed to my St. Jude's fund raiser. When I see her picture I smile as her smiling eyes look just like yours. I want you to know that you do have many friends and family that love you and to reach out in your darkest hours. We are here for you..

Mom, I just can't believe you left us so suddenly. I didn't even get a chance to tell you nearly enough how very much I love you and how much I appreciate everything you always did for me and he girls. I feel you all around me and it comforts me knowing that you are still with me and the girls. Dad is taking your death very hard as you were the glue that kept this family together. Now it's my turn to keep this family together because I know you would expect me to be the strong one. I only hope that I can live up to your expectations as you have big shoes to fill. You were such a strong, loving and caring woman and I truly hope now that you do know just how much I love you and miss you. Please don't worry about the girls mom, I am going to take extra special care of them as I know they need me more than ever now. I will also look after dad to the best of my abilities and make sure that he is looked after and has warm meals just like you always provided to him and help him monitor his blood sugar and make sure he eats properly. You were a wonderful and an amazing woman and I only hope that one day I can live up to the potential that you always knew I could. I love you mom and I want you to know that you will always be in my mind and live in my heart forever!

*With All My Love,
Your Loving Daughter,
Patricia*

I lit this candle for you Mama just like the one I have lit right next to me for you....only the one next to me smells like a warm summer breeze....you would love it!!! But unlike my candle may the fire of this candle forever burn as my love for you and the memories we shared will always light my darkest days, and keep my heart warm when the world can be so cold. You have always been the BEST mother anyone could ask for, and you have quite a few adopted children just because they loved you so much....you made it easy for everyone to love you. But you were more than that to me....you were my best friend and my hero, and the strongest woman I have ever known. I watched you endure more pain that would have a 400lb. man in tears and yet you kept your smile and kept rolling on like nothing was wrong. I hope that I have made you at least somewhat proud of me during your short years here, but I promise while you walk by my side into my future....you will only get even more proud as that has always been my goal." I love you" doesn't even break the ice with the love YOU taught me....but you know that already. I am so proud to be your Son, and so proud to be able to say, MY MOTHER taught me to love fully with all my heart, to always be a perfect gentleman to all ladies, NEVER give up on my goals or myself, but most importantly, you taught me that it is OK to be me, and through you I have learned to love myself. I can never thank you enough for all the wonderful things you have given me, your beautiful blue eyes and artistic creativity to name my favorites! And I could never thank you enough for ALWAYS having faith in me and being my biggest admirer when it comes to my art. You are the best Mama, I love you FOREVER, and will see you in my dreams as often as I can. I know you are still with me because I feel you everywhere I go!!

Thanks for making me.....ME!!! Because you loved me the best out of everyone and I will cherish you always!!

*Love Forever and Always,
Your Son and Best Friend,*

We would also like to add thanks to Joe McNeal, Steve D'Esposito, and Amy Shugrue for all of your prayers, condolences, and kind words as well. She certainly was and still is a wonderful woman to all. Now she is just watching over us all to keep us all loved and safe because that is what she was the best at... loving everyone and keeping smiles on all the faces around her. My father now has his children to look after him for her and we vow on our lives to do her proud and take the VERY best care of our Dad that we possibly can, and constantly remind him and show him the love he deserves and that he has given us all these years. We will make you proud Mama!! We love you with all of our hearts!!

Sincerely and With Deepest Regards,

Patricia & Kenny Jr.
