

Marvin Bowen Coppage

June 30, 1940 - October 10, 2015

Marvin Bowen Coppage of Centreville, MD, died on October 10, 2015. He was 75.

Born on June 30, 1940, he was the son of the late Benjamin Lake Coppage and Gertrude Kimbles Coppage. Marvin graduated in 1958 from Centreville High School, and married his high school sweetheart, Jane Powell, in 1960. The couple lived in Price when they were first married and then moved to Roberts Station, where he began farming.

Marvin managed Southern States in Middletown, DE, and Salisbury, MD, between 1969 and 1978. In 1978, he began working at Flo-N-Gro in Lynch, MD, until starting his own fertilizer business, Coppage Farm Services, which he owned and operated with his sons. In 1979, Marvin and the boys built their current home in Centreville, MD. He finished out his career with Willards Agri Service in Lynch, retiring in 2003.

Marvin was a member of the Marvin Memorial United Methodist Church in Barclay, MD; a member and past president of the Sudlersville Skeet Club, past president of the Coppedge-Coppage Family Association, and a member of the Kent County Gun Club. Marvin enjoyed traveling the country in his camper with Jane and Ellie. His hobbies included skeet and trap shooting, making his own shot, golfing, hunting and, in the mid-1980s, drag racing. He took much pride in teaching his family how to hunt and about gun safety.

In addition to his wife, he is survived by his children, Marvin B. "Chip" Coppage, Jr., of Centreville, MD, David P. Coppage and his wife, Vicky, of Centreville, MD, Susan P. Coppage and Chris Miliner of Barclay, MD, Kerri C. Russell and her husband, Shane, of Centreville, MD, and his beloved dog, Ellie; grandchildren; Michael B. Coppage, Joseph R. Coppage, Kendall L. Coppage; Jordan J. Coppage; James Alexander Bradley, Jr.; Cheyanne L. Russell, Samantha Cusic-Coppage, Parker B. Roskovich and Delaney A. McGowen; a great-granddaughter, Alliyah L. Coppage; his brother, William B. Coppage of Church Hill, MD; and many special nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his brothers, Nobel Franklin Coppage and Arvel Lee Coppage. He will always be remembered for his kindhearted manner and his infectious smile.

Friends and family may visit from 5-8 pm on Friday, October 16 ,at the Fellows, Helfenbein & Newnam Funeral Home, P.A. in Centreville, MD. A funeral service will be held at 1 pm on Saturday, October 17 at the Centreville United Methodist Church. Burial will follow at Chesterfield Cemetery in Centreville, MD.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to the Marvin B. Coppage Children's Hunter Education Fund, c/o Centreville National Bank, 109 N. Commerce St., Centreville, MD 21617, to provide Hunting Education and Safety Training to children.

Jane and Family: There are not enough words how our hearts feel today. Marvin was an awesome family man and friend. It is so hard to understand why people are taken from us, but find comfort in knowing he was a special part of a well-lived life. Memories of love and friendship are treasures to carry with you always. Hold onto your many memories and let them guide you during this time of sadness. He is not alone and neither are you. Our many prayers and blessings are with you. Wishing you and your family strength and peace. You know we are here for you at any time. Love and prayers, Lynda and Gene.

“ To Ms. Jane and all of her incredible children and grandchildren. May you all find a way to be comforted by the wonderful memories of a man who loved his family with all of his heart. Mr. Marvin and Ms. Jane have created a legacy of love and devotion through their children and extended family that will never end. The Coppage family continue to be in our thoughts and prayers in the days and months ahead. Much Love, Billy & Rhonda Knotts

Jane and family,

There isn't enough words to say how sorry we are with your loss . The first thing that came to me was I guess the good Lord needed a another farmer in heaven. Our thoughts and prayers are with each one of you.
