

Mary Winifred Bourbon

May 24, 1934 - September 23, 2018

Mary Winifred (McBride) Bourbon, of Easton, MD, passed away on Sunday September 23, 2018, at Easton Memorial Hospital. She was 84 years old.

Born on May 24, 1934, in Devon, CT, she was the daughter of John and Margaret McBride, the seventh of their ten children.

Mary grew up in Bladensburg, MD, and graduated High School at St. Patrick's Academy. Upon graduation, Mary enrolled in the Holy Cross Novitiate for a three-month stay. Upon realizing the convent was not her future, she went to work on Capital Hill. It was 1953,, she was eighteen years old, and she felt incredibly lucky to secure a job in Congressman Green of Pennsylvania's office. Mary loved working on the "Hill" - it was Eisenhower's Inauguration, and she was awed by the endless parade of political dignitaries.

It was while working in Congressman Rabaut of Michigan's office that she met the man that would become the center of her life, John Bourbon. They were married for 60 years, and would both brag that they never had an argument. Their marriage was the foundation of their family, their lives, and their values. Nothing mattered more.

Together they had, and are survived by, four children, John Joseph (Nancy) Bourbon Jr., Mary Bridget Bourbon, Patricia (John) McGlannan, and Robert Allen (Michelle) Bourbon; eight grandchildren, Gus (Raya) Colby, Patricia McGlannan, Tucker Bourbon, Sara Bourbon, Darrell Smith, Meghan Colby, Morgan Smith and Joshua Bourbon; and one truly great-grandchild, Lukas Colby.

Becoming a grandmother was one of the greatest joys of her life, a job for which she had trained her whole life. Growing up in Bladensburg, her mother fostered babies for Catholic Charities and there were always an extra dozen infants in the house. From the age of eight, she could diaper and feed a baby like a veteran. She often commented that she had over 75 godchildren, as bathtub baptisms were quite the norm. Her love for these babies spilled over to her numerous nephews and nieces and younger siblings, many of whom considered her a second mom.

After many years at home raising her own children, Mary entered Real Estate as an agent with Rosendale Realty, where she worked for ten years. From real estate agent to settlement agent, Mary Bourbon found her passion. At the age of 58, she opened her own title company, Upper Shore Title, Inc. in partnership with her brother, Joseph F. McBride. For over 20 years, Mary Bourbon enjoyed great success as one of the top title companies in Talbot County and the Eastern Shore. All who came to work with her called her Mary Bourbon, she was no longer simply Mary. On a number of occasions she was recognized for her excellence with awards from the Mid-Shore Board of Realtors. Mary Bourbon was well-known for her professionalism, genuine concern for her clients, and her ability to inject common sense into pure chaos. Mary was well-loved by her staff, which became more family than employees.

Mary had a quiet artistic side, and an early passion for decorating cakes, which her family greatly appreciated! For many years she was active in the Ladies Alter Society of St. Christopher's Church in Chester, MD, and was a leader in Queen Anne's County's 4-H program and was very proud to be a female range officer in the Marksmanship program. Mary loved her gardens, spending hours chasing the shade in which to weed her flowers, and counted her hummingbirds whenever they arrived.

In addition to her children, Mary is survived by her loving husband of 60 years, John J. Bourbon, Sr.; her brother, Joseph F. McBride; sisters, Catherine McBride, Anna McBride, and Patricia McEachron; and over 70 nieces and nephews.

Mary is preceded in death by her parents, John B. & Margaret (Sullivan) McBride; her siblings, Margaret (AL) Chroniger, John (Sophie) McBride, Francis (Nick) Abram, Russell (Candida) McBride, and William (Aloha) McBride.

A funeral mass service will be held on Friday, September 28 at 11 a.m. at Sts. Peter & Paul Catholic Church at 1210 S. Washington Street, Easton, MD. Internment will be held at Old St. Joseph Catholic Church cemetery immediately following the service. Visitations will be held on Thursday, September 27 from 6 until 8 p.m. at Fellows, Helfenbein & Newnam Funeral Home, at 200 S. Harrison Street, Easton, MD.

Mary's family would like to send their heartfelt thanks to the ER staff at Easton Memorial Hospital in Easton, for their kindness, professionalism, and absolute dedication to the dignity and care of our beloved mother and wife.

“ I am so very sorry to read that Mary had passed. It has been awhile, but we stumbled upon one another at the hair salon and enjoyed catching up on our children and families. We lived in Marling Farms together for many years and always enjoyed each others family stories! Condolences to the Bourbon family.
