

Mary I. Clubb

July 4, 1923 - January 6, 2021

Mary I. Clubb of Oxford, MD, died at Bayleigh Chase, in Easton MD, on January 6, 2021, with her husband Clint by her side. She was 97 years old.

She was born in Reading, PA, on July 4, 1923, the daughter of Benjamin and Beulah McLoud.

Mary attended Wilson High School. She married her high school sweetheart, Clinton Clubb, on November 17, 1945. They celebrated 75 years of marriage this past November.

Mary lived in Lancaster, PA, for many years where she and Clint raised their family. She was active in Iris Club, Garden Club, and Media Heights Golf Club. Faith was important to Mary, and she was an active member of St. Peter's Lutheran Church, Neffsville. She also co-owned Stitches Unlimited in Lancaster. Mary was an accomplished needlework artist, designing her work and teaching her designs throughout the country.

Mary and Clint retired to Oxford where Mary became an active member of the community. She belonged to The Church of the Holy Trinity where she spent time in many areas of ministry. She also participated in a garden club, a book club, and Embroiderer's Guild.

Mary also enjoyed travelling. Her and Clint's travels took them to Canada, Mexico, Scotland, South Africa, Scandinavia, England, Israel, and China.

Mary is survived by her son, Bradford Clubb (Jill) of Manheim, PA; four grandsons, Matthew Perna (Christie) of Portland, OR, Bob Perna (Danielle) of West Chester, PA, Ross Clubb (Allison) of Newmanstown, PA, and Grant Clubb of Manheim, PA. Mary is also survived by one great grandchild, Chase Clubb.

She was preceded in death by her daughter, Kim Collier.

A service will be held this spring at the convenience of the family. Burial will be at the Columbarium of the Church of the Holy Trinity in Oxford, MD.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made in her honor to the Oxford Community Center in Oxford, MD.

“ Bradford, a donation has been made to the National Academy of Needlearts Circle Fund in memory of Mary by our member, Robin Geis. The Circle Fund provides scholarships for graduate study for students in our Teachers' and Judges' Certification programs. Our organization promotes needleart education, a community in which Mary was a major contributor in both design and education. Respectfully, Teresa Frank, Secretary/Treasurer, National Academy of Needlearts

“ Dear Brad and family,
I have many fond memories of your mom - from the time that Kibby and I were roommates at the University of Delaware, to visits in Oxford, as well as the beautiful wedding brunch your mom and Kibby hosted for me on my wedding day. Your mom always had a calming, caring presence and was a wonderful influence on others. I am especially reminded of your mom and Kibby every year when I decorate my Christmas tree with some of the special ornaments that Kibby made from your Mom's cross stitch shop. Thinking of you as you miss your mom, dad, and Kibby.

“ For several years I did Japanese embroidery with Mary in Chincoteague. She was such a kind soul and I loved being around her. Prayers to Clint and the rest of the family.

“ I am a fairly new resident in Easton. I moved here two years ago but I knew Mary when we were both in teacher certification for needlework together at the Valentine Museum in Richmond. She and her good friend Ginnie Morrow (also from Lancaster, PA) were both popular teachers for the Embroiderers Guild of America (EGA) and the American Needlepoint Guild. Both of them designed many needlepoint teaching projects that were inspired by the Amish quilts in Lancaster, and Mary was also known for her kimono designs. Fortunately I was able to locate Mary through a former student and we had a delightful two-hour visit in February before the Covid lockdown. She will be sorely missed.
