“ Dear Emily and Elizabeth: I love your mom and you all so very much. It was a blessing to be in your home while we were all growing up, and to be the recipient of so much you or parents' kindness and attention. Apart from a few women in my own family, there is no woman to whom I owe a greater debt of love than I do you mom. I am so very sorry for her long illness and for your loss.

“ Dear Elizabeth and Family,

We were saddened to hear of your loss. When reading your mom's obituary I tried to picture the good times she had with family and friends traveling the world, vacationing at great beaches and having the joy of birthing children. She lived a full and happy life. The memories that brought you joy precious can bring you joy in the future. Please take care and stay safe.
