“ Being "Grandpa" I naturally had the privilege of watching my granddaughter when she was a baby. It was time for a bath. It was not intended to be a bubble bath, but after she fluffed in the water, we had bubbles. Needless to say she thought it was great, and I got to give my grand daughter her first "Bubble Bath". My heart goes out to my daughter, Machele when she hurts, I hurt. I will see you tomorrow. I love you. Dad

“ When I first met Mary she was 4 years old. My boy and I became very close to her and her family. Mary is and always will be the little girl I never had. Always fun loving, heart of gold. Machelle will tell you she could sing and write beautiful things. Loved life to the fullest. May God be with her and her family. Watch over the ones she loved because they need you more then ever. We lost one wonderful person way to early but I know she is in good hands now. Will always love you and keeping you in my heart and prayers. Mary will be missed.

“ Dear David, Machelles, and Family,

I found this poem I have always loved and just wanted to share it with you all. I have always felt it to be true. Hope it helps! Love and prayers, Terry Banz

*Do not Stand at My Grave and Weep
By Mary Elizabeth Frye, circa 1932*

*Do not stand at my grave and weep;
I am not there, I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow.
I am the diamond glints on snow.
I am the sunlight on ripened grain.
I am the gentle autumn rain.
When you awaken in the morning's hush
I am the swift uplifting rush
Of quiet birds in circled flight.
I am the soft stars that shine at night.
Do not stand at my grave and cry;
I am not there, I did not die.*

In memory of Mary Elizabeth Fauver

Mary, I saw you in the diamond glints on snow last night and today. I love you, and miss you, too. Always will... Terry “ Mary, I loved the way you were always cheerful, no matter how sad or depressed you were inside. You kept us all laughing on Skype, and even though we never met in real life and were so far away from each other, it was obvious that you were a kind and gentle soul. You had such strength in your heart and wanted to change the world. I remember the several times I told you that I loved your make-up and your hair, even though you were naturally beautiful, both outside and on the inside. We will miss you and our cheesy Skype video conferences, making fun of Allen. You parted way too soon and I get the feeling the world feels poorer without a star like yourself.

I wish the best for your family and close friends.

“ my favorite memory with mary was homecoming or prom I'm not sure which one it wasbut the excitement and sparkles In her eyes while her mom did her hair I'll never forget that moment.. she was beautiful and she knew it .. I love that girl more than anything and then we got out of high school and drifted apart... she will be sorely missed I just wish I could have talked to her one more time at least... I'm praying for your family so go be able to deal with this as easy as possible not saying that this will be easy but I hope that it goes as smoothly as possible
