“ My mom, Rose Quinn, and Ms. Mary were friends from the time they were in their 20s and as my mom says "shared a lot of laughs". Mom is 89 now, and they continued to stay in touch until Ms. Mary went into Hospice House. It was wonderful that she and Mr. John found one another, and my dad (Pete Quinn) and mom enjoyed many outings with them: for lunch in Delaware and Easton and Kent Narrow, and vacations to Gatlinburg and Dollywood and a bus trip to Branson MO to see all the shows. We will remember her as funny and upbeat and energetic. She loved her family and her God. We know she is smiling on us all today, and is back with her loved ones in heaven. Rest in peace, Ms. Mary. We love you.

I sat with mrs mary six days before she passed. Even though miss rose wasnt there, miss mary talked with her for about two hours, until she fell asleep in her chair. Bless her heart
