

Mary Ann Kocornik

May 21, 1934 - January 24, 2019

Mary Ann Beins Kocornik passed away peacefully in her home in Easton, MD, on January 24, 2019, with her husband, Dick Kocornik, by her side.

Mary earned her BA degree in Math from Marymount Manhattan College. In high school, she played basketball and won foul shooting contests in New York City. She was an avid reader throughout much of her life and joined the staff at Roseland Library for several years after her children were raised. She loved the beach and vacationed almost every summer at Barnegat Light with her beloved family. The beloved mother of five resided in Caldwell, NJ, for 60 years before relocating to Easton in August 2018.

She leaves behind her loving husband of almost 60 years, Dick Kocornik; children, Patricia Sutton of Branchburg, NJ, Richard H. Kocornik of Daytona Beach, FL, Jean Barranco of Parkton, MD, Marie Paris of Easton, MD, and James Kocornik-Mina of Amsterdam; her ten grandchildren, Carolyn, Liz, and Jenn Barranco, John, Kate and Isabel Paris, Laura and Kara Sutton, and Vu and Duval Kocornik-Mina; daughter-in-law, Adriana Kocornik-Mina; and sons-in-law, Bill Sutton, Frank Barranco, and Tim Paris.

She was predeceased by her parents, Hugh Beins and Elizabeth McDermott Beins of Fordham Hill, NY, and her siblings, Hugh Beins of Washington, DC, and Alice Beins of Silver Springs, MD.

Services will be held in Caldwell, NJ, in April.
