“ Oh, Mary. I was just thinking of you and looked you up. I'm sorry to hear that you've passed on and I never got a chance to say goodbye. I'll always remember our chats about our faith, and I still have the book you gave me, Psalm 91 for Mothers. I treasure it. I am happy to know that you are with our Heavenly Father!! You must be one of His favorites because you were doing His work!! I love you, Mary. See you some day☐

“ Mary was a dear Sister in the Lord ❤️ My husband & I shared the Rectory we were living in with our baby daughter with Mary & her beloved husband, John. We had many wonderful visits with them & our daughter loved playing games together with John.

We grieve for the loss of Mary, she will rest in peace & rise in glory. We pray for John, and are so very grateful for how he loved & cared his wife. We pray for him to know compassion from Jesus, our Lord & Savior to touch his heart & griefs from the loss of his beloved wife. We also pray for John Daniel & Ginny & beloved children in their grief & loss. Prayers are also offered for comfort for Mary's first family for compassion & healing for their loss.

“ I have wonderful memories of Mary: Hiking with Mary and John on weekends through woods around New Haven, before her pregnancy, during her pregnancy, and then with John carrying John Daniel on his back. I remember sewing curtains together for their new apartment and laughing a lot in the process. I remember her sweet smile and generous spirit. Mary was a blessing, one of the gifts given to me in my life. Diane Dynia
