“ *I loved my Monday Morning visits with Mary. She started my week off with her bright smile. She loved sharing stories of her “girls” and spoke so lovingly of her Oscar. I will miss her greatly , but she will always hold a special place in my heart. May she Rest In Peace forever in the loving arms of her Lord. Blessings to all of the family.

Mary and Oscar were friends and neighbors of my parents. My brother (Les) & I grew up just across the street, and their youngest, Theresa, was still at home. All the families in the neighborhood created a nice place for kids to grow up. Mary was a devoted mom and a good, caring, Christian person. Our deepest sympathies to the whole family.

“Mary and her husband, Oscar, were lifelong friends of my mother, Esther Taylor, and my Father, Joe Taylor. She was indeed a devoted friend who played “scrabble” with my parents and also had my parents too many a dinner at her home for many a year. After my father’s death, she continued to visit my mother and include her as a friend. I lived in a different state and was away for many a year and it was comforting to me to know of Mary ‘s devotion and many blessings to my Mom. With the deepest of sympathy, Sarah Taylor Price
