“ Aunt Mamie bought my son Gerald the most beautiful out fit when he was born. I remember her most for her kind sweet manner and loved the way she dressed. I was so young then and I have not seen her for years but feel like I have never forgotten her beauty and gentleness. I regret that families sometimes fall apart from one another, but I believe when we all get to heaven it will be grand like nothing in the past matters. She was a good sister to my Mom and we all know sisters have their differences but that no matter what the love for each other will always be there in their hearts no matter what the circumstances. I miss my Mother she too was kind and sweet like her sister. I know they are together again.
