

Mary Elizabeth "Betsy" Mast Ray

June 5, 1939 - May 26, 2025

MARY ELIZABETH "Betsy" Mast Ray

Betsy went home to be with her Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ on Monday, May 26, 2025.

Betsy passed this life on her 63rd wedding anniversary to John F. Ray, Chestertown, MD. Born in Reading, PA to J. Carroll and Mary E. (Williams) Mast on June 5, 1939. She was the third of three girls born to Carroll and Mary; Louise and Suzanne. Betsy was the loving mother of three children, Benjamin, and his wife, Bibiana, of Washington, DC, Alex, and his wife Linda, of Lancaster, PA and Beatrix (Trixi), and Sharon Perez, of Mountville, PA. She was the grandmother to 4 boys: Ben's son, Kyle and Alex's sons, Jack, Luke, and Mark. She is survived by her husband, children, and grandchildren. She is also survived by three nephews and four nieces.

In addition to being a caring and devoted mother and grandmother, Betsy worked as a teacher for the Reading School District and for her husband's architectural firm for many years.

Betsy loved all Philadelphia sports teams and was a great athlete overall; she loved tennis and bowling. She and her husband played in a croquet group after their retirement in 1992. She enjoyed traveling, gardening, laughing, and spending time with her family and friends. She enjoyed taking family trips to the Abacos, Bahamas.

Betsy and John moved to Chestertown, MD permanently in 1992 to their home, "Nearwater". She enjoyed being part of the Chestertown Garden Club, K.A.R.T and St. Paul's, Kent Episcopal Church.

Church service and Celebration of Life will be held on June 6, 2025 at 1pm at St. Paul's, Kent and reception following at the Chester River Country Club.

“ Aww Mrs. Mary, you will be so missed. I loved getting to work with you the short period I was there. You were ornery but fun too. Loved sitting at the kitchen table with you and Mr. John for breakfast, lunch and dinner. Loved kissing you on your forehead at night putting you to bed before I left. You will be missed. 💔💔💔
