“ My deepest sympathy to the family.

I have wonderful childhood memories of being with Aunt Mary in the 1940s and 50s at my Grandmother's house on 16th Street. It was such fun being around her and her 3 beautiful daughters. Rest in peace.

“ I loved and respected my Aunt Mary so much - I wanted to be just like her!

She was one of the smartest, kindest, most beautiful people GOD put on this earth. I know she will be greatly missed by her family and her many friends. Our deepest sympathies.

“ I will always remember Miss Mary shaking out her dust rag in the back courtyard each morning and her enjoying the food at the block parties. Your mother has been such a part of your life Sandra and Katharyn and know she will be missed.
