If you can look back at one's life and know you have felt loved and that all around you knew how much you loved them, that is a life well lived! I sure loved her and will miss my Aunt MaryAnn the rest of my life!

“ We were saddened to learn of Mary Ann's passing. She was always welcoming in her home, and she was a very calm soul with an easy laugh--- and that laugh showed up often when around her two sons. Rest in Peace. Bill and Patty Kelly

“ My dear Aunt MaryAnn. I have so many wonderful memories. Phil and I loved visiting her. One of my favorite stories was our big family trip to Lake Powell. We rented a big houseboat. We made so many memories...we played lots of games. One night, MaryAnn had gone to bed, and evidently was developing a cold. Terrible runny nose. She didn't have any tissues, so she said she had to use her socks...we all laughed so hard, well some of us were horrified. She had those socks on her feet in the morning..she told us not to worry, she turned them inside out so the clean side was touching her feet....I loved when I visited her and she bought fresh crabs and made them for us. Loved coming to Meghan and Philip wedding...I also have the quilt that she made for my Dad. I love it. MaryAnn had such talent..She was also my inspiration to becoming a nurse...I will miss her so much...my thoughts and prayers to her sister Aunt Nancy and her brother, Tim..as well as Jim and Doug and her grandchildren. I know she is in Heaven with my Dad and her daughter in law, Nora...till we meet again..I love you

“ When MaryAnn’s brother, Tim, was stationed in Iran, he bought a necklace with a coin of The Shaw of Iran on it for MaryAnn’s mom. Her mom stored it in the the safe deposit box. Mary Ann and her sister, Nancy, often joked about who would get the necklace. When their mom passed, Nancy snuck into the safe deposit box and wore the necklace to the Memorial Service. When MaryAnn saw her she asked “where did you get that?”. Nancy replied “Mom wanted ME to have it”.

I remember that story about the gold necklace, it was always a tongue in cheek story about who was going to get the gold necklace. It was a style that neither one would really wear but it sure brought a lot of laughter with both sisters! I will always be grateful to be part of MaryAnn's life. She was full of wisdom and generosity. I loved her sense of humor and she had such a sparkle and enthusiasm for life. Her adoration for her family was something to behold. I will miss my Aunt MaryAnn so much, there was no one like her. Love to her entire family, Robin Rennells in Arizona
